

Please do not weaken the Wisconsin No-Call List. While I appreciate the business need to market products, I do not appreciate the invasive tactic of unending telemarketing calls. There are far too many other successful marketing channels available for these businesses. Leave the out-bound phone calls out of the marketing mix and leave people their privacy. Thank you for your attention to this matter.